Group Bookings

Get closer to Cornish culture with a memorable museum experience

CORNWALL MUSEUM & ART GALLERY

Highlights

The Mineral Gallery

Explore a globally important mineral collection

The Heart of Cornwall Gallery

Iconic objects telling Cornwall's origin story

The Art Gallery

Featuring works from Cornwall's world-famous art colonies

The Nature Gallery

Celebrating Cornwall's beautiful landscape and wildlife

Visit Cornwall's national treasures

The definitive destination for Cornish art, artefacts, history, nature and culture, this award-winning regional museum is home to a remarkable collection of treasures which tell the story of a unique part of the world.

Discounted entry is available for bookings of more than 10 people, and visits can be pre-booked in advance or arranged with just a few hours' notice, circumstances allowing.

"Our group thoroughly enjoyed the visit, which was elevated by the welcoming, informative and helpful team"

Tour Guide

Group visits that are...

Flexible

Book months in advance or call us when plans change. Our adaptable and friendly team are always happy to help.

Great value

Group visits are just £7.50 per person for groups of ten or more, making the museum a great value excursion as part of any itinerary.

Accessible

The museum is fully accessible by wheelchair, with a lift and accessible toilets. In summer, the galleries stay pleasantly cool.

Practicalities

Truro itself is a small, walkable city featuring Georgian architecture, pretty parks, a regular farmers market and pedestrian shopping streets, plus the impressive Gothic-revival Cathedral.

- Coaches and minibuses can drop off visitors outside the museum. There is coach parking a few minutes away.
- Group bookings can be pre-booked and paid in advance via your chosen payment method.
- Need to adapt your plans? We can usually accommodate group bookings with just a few hours' notice.
- You can expect a warm welcome at the museum, where a helpful team of staff and volunteers are happy to answer any questions.
- All visitors booked as part of a group receive 10% discount in the museum shop.

Open seven days a week,
10am – 4pm, April to November.
Closed Sundays and Mondays from November to March.

To book a group visit:
01872 723230
cornwallmuseum.org